For Immediate Release
November 21, 2011

Sullivan Construction, Inc. is pleased to announce that Brian Gallagher and David Kerr have joined our Construction Services team.

Brian Gallagher has been actively involved in the design, construction, and development industry for over 30 years in New England, managing relationships with corporate, institutional, and public organizations over the course of his career. Brian brings extensive design/build and construction management expertise to the Sullivan Construction team. He works as a vital liaison between the design & construction group at Sullivan and our client. From the initial contact through construction completion and beyond, Brian makes sure that our services are delivered in the most professional and seamless manner possible, thus assuring our client of a successful project and an enjoyable construction experience.

David Kerr has over twenty five years of Senior Project Manager experience with construction projects in the US and the United Kingdom. David brings extensive hotel, restaurant and retail/office construction experience to Sullivan as Senior Project Manager. His responsibilities include managing all projects, coordinating with our clients and subcontractors to deliver quality work consistent with our 42 year history. We are pleased to welcome David to our construction management team.

Sullivan Construction Inc. has a 42 year history in providing Design\Build and Construction Management services to our client base. We are active throughout the Northeast in Corporate, Healthcare, Hospitality and Retail construction and renovation.
